People

Jose Luis and Melina welcomed home baby Mateo just a few weeks ago. We praise the Lord for his healthy arrival! Please pray for Jose Luis and Melina as they learn to lead their children Nazareno, Valentina, and Mateo to follow God.

Ariel and Daniela participated in Bible Study for a number of months last year, but this year they have not wanted to meet. This weekend, Ariel and Daniela joined us at our house for fellowship and showed some eagerness to examine a Scripture passage together. Please pray for their hearts to turn—and remain!—to the Father.

Gospels of John

Jason continues working to distribute the gospels of John in Buenos Aires. Recently, residents of Villa Urquiza and first-year students at the University of Buenos Aires have received a gospel of John. Please pray that these portions of Scripture will accomplish what God pleases and prosper in His purposes (Isaiah 55:11).

That All May Know

Since arriving in Buenos Aires almost five years ago, we have formed casual friendships with a number of people from our neighborhood. Will you pray for these, that in our remaining two months God will open a door for us to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with them?

Ariel and Gloria, pet shop owners
Enzo, ice cream shop employee
Cristina, back-door neighbor
Maurice, French retiree
(to whom we gave a French Bible)
Victor, moving-truck driver
Mr. Gómez, 80-year old widower

Córdoba

Thank you for praying for a place to live in our new city. Last month, work began to repair the house that will be our family's next home! We are excited—it will be a great place for our family as we begin this new phase of life and ministry. Lord willing, our move to Córdoba will happen the first week of February. Please pray for us as we finalize decisions about the kids' school and prepare for the big move.

Study Time

2011 has proven to be a year of transitions! We became a family of five, we accepted a job transfer to Córdoba, and Jason entered a new online program to earn a master's degree in Theological Studies from Midwestern Baptist College. This year, he has taken New Testament Greek and Administration courses. Despite significant homework demands, the courses have been a privilege. Jason is thankful for the opportunity to deepen his academic preparation for ministry.

Family

Daniela and her classmates are getting ready for the end of the school year program, kindergarten graduation, family picnic, and tap recital. We have some busy weeks ahead! Nicholas loves his weekly music class, can't go to bed without his Woody and Buzz Lightyear action figures, and continues to be as sweet as ever. Michael smiles big and often, lighting up the room with his happy face. He is becoming more vocal, and sometimes sounds like a baby pterodactyl with all his squeals! We are looking forward to celebrating Michael's first Thanksgiving with our mission family this Thursday.
